

rock by rock

Take Action Project

Making a Comic Book

Name:

A.2 Make a Character Profile

Directions: Regine starts planning comics by thinking of characters. Create a character profile for yourself. Then, create one for someone you know. You can use these profiles to help design your own characters.

Create a character profile for yourself.

Character Drawing:

Physical Description:

Background Information:

Character Traits:

Superpowers:

Create a character profile for someone you know.

Character Drawing:

Physical Description:

Background Information:

Character Traits:

Superpowers:

A.6 Plan Your Comic Book

Directions: Use the questions below to start planning your comic book.

What is the purpose? Are you trying to teach the reader something, getting them to take action, or both?

Who is your main character, or hero? Does your comic books have a villain? If yes, who is it?

What is the plot? What problem is your main character trying to solve? What are the events that happen to help them solve the problem?

End of Preview

If you want to see the rest of the student Mission Log, sign-up for a free-trial.

rock by rock 